

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Welcome! If you join us today for the first time, please know how important your presence is among us, and that in the spirit of hospitality, our intention is to welcome you so that you may worship with us. You can find a "Welcome to St. Mark's" tri-fold on the back table.

Children are welcome in our worship services. Children's bulletins with crayons can be found on the back table. We ask that children refrain from running on the ramp in the parish hall during the service. Our Nursery is available on the first floor for the restless, but please note that it is not staffed.

Holy Communion. We invite you to participate fully in our worship. All baptized Christians, regardless of age, are welcome to share in Communion at the Lord's Table by coming to the altar. A wafer is placed into your open hands. You can either eat it immediately, or, if offered, wait to dip the bread into the chalice of wine. If you choose to drink from the cup, guide it to your mouth by holding the base of the chalice. If you'd prefer to receive a blessing instead of the bread or the wine, please fold your arms over your chest to indicate this. Gluten-free wafers are available; please request one when you come forward.

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

At the end of each petition, People: "Hear us, good Lord."

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Offertory Song

The Holy Communion

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

Lift up your hearts.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: And also with you.

We lift them to the Lord.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, and our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Holy Father, almighty and eternal God. For you have created the heavens and the earth and formed us in your own image. In the fullness of time, you sent forth your Son, your eternal Word, who laid down his life for our salvation and rose from the grave, the first-fruits of your new creation. You send forth your holy and life-giving Spirit to give life to our mortal bodies and to renew the face of the earth. Therefore with all the heavenly hosts, we give voice to everything that you have made, and sing the eternal hymn of praise.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith, Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Redeemer God, rich in mercy, infinite in goodness, we were far off until you brought us near, and our hands are empty until you fill them. As we eat this bread and drink this wine, through the power of your Holy Spirit feed us with your heavenly food, renew us in your service, unite us in Christ, and bring us to your everlasting kingdom. By him and with him and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.
